

New Fountain Mobile Street

The first phase of the Mobile Street renovation project has been completed with the addition of a new fountain that is a miniature replica of Wilson Dam. It was unveiled on Friday, April 23, 2010.

Phase Two of the project has begun. This stage will renovate the sidewalks and the surface of Mobile Street.

